Mary had a backpack.
It was pink and blue and purple.
It was very full.
It was very heavy, too.

She took it to school.
She took it back home.

She had a pencil.
She had an eraser.
She had a notebook.
She had a book.
She had paper.

It also had her lunch.
Her lunch bag was brown
It was a paper bag.

It had an apple.
It had a cookie.
It had some chips.
It had a sandwich.
It had some milk.

Mary had a backpack and a lunch.
Backpack and Lunch

Story By: Andrew Frinkle

Use the information in the story to answer the questions below.

1. What does Mary have?
   A. a shoe
   B. a backpack
   C. a phone
   D. a TV

2. What colors is Mary’s backpack?
   A. pink and red and green
   B. red and pink and purple
   C. pink and blue and purple
   D. green and red and orange

3. Which of these is NOT in Mary’s backpack?
   A. paper
   B. pencil
   C. toys
   D. eraser

4. What color is Mary’s lunch bag?
   A. black
   B. gray
   C. red
   D. brown

5. Which of these is in Mary’s lunch?
   A. cake
   B. cookie
   C. pie
   D. pizza

© HaveFunTeaching.com
Backpack and Lunch

Story By: Andrew Frinkle

Use the information in the story to answer the questions below.

1. What does Mary have?
   A. a shoe
   B. a backpack
   C. a phone
   D. a TV

2. What colors is Mary’s backpack?
   A. pink and red and green
   B. red and pink and purple
   C. pink and blue and purple
   D. green and red and orange

3. Which of these is NOT in Mary’s backpack?
   A. paper
   B. pencil
   C. toys
   D. eraser

4. What color is Mary’s lunch bag?
   A. black
   B. gray
   C. red
   D. brown

5. Which of these is in Mary’s lunch?
   A. cake
   B. cookie
   C. pie
   D. pizza