

Slap Shot Hockey

Identifying Telling Sentences

Play Slap Shot Hockey to practice reading and identifying telling sentences.

The object of the game is to travel around the game board to shoot a goal and score! Place your playing pieces on the board. The first player picks the top card and reads the sentence. The player must determine if it is a telling sentence or not. If it is a telling sentence, the player moves one space on the game board. If it is an asking sentence, the player does not move. (Sentences with and without punctuation are provided).

The first player to reach the end of the game, scores a goal and wins! After game play, complete the worksheet provided.
