

Name: _____

Importance of Farming

Directions: The farming industry is very important in the United States. There are farms all over the country. Different crops are grown, and different animals are raised. Look at the pictures below. Write a word for each picture. You can use a resource to check your spelling.

