

Name: _____

What Are Liquids?

Liquid matter is an object that takes the shape of its container. It fills up the container it is in. The molecules in a liquid are farther away and move around. A liquid can flow. Liquid is a state in between a solid and a gas.

Directions: Write the word liquid under all of the pictures that show matter that is in a liquid state.

