Whose, Who’s

Directions: Read the sentences. Choose the proper form of the words whose or who’s to complete each sentence.

1. I have no idea ________________ crayons these are, but they are all broken!

2. Do you know ________________ coming to the party next week?

3. ________________ going to help me bake this bread?

4. ________________ paper is this here without a name?

5. Can you tell me ________________ going to be working on the new kitchen with my dad?

6. ________________ next in line for the movie tickets?

7. My mother had had enough when she yelled, “______________ making all that racket down there?”

8. I am not sure ________________ idea it was to give the baby a container of frosting, but it wasn’t a good idea!

9. Does dad know ________________ trick or treating with us?

10. Mrs. Pappa found a dollar on the floor, and Sally knew ________________ it was.
Directions: Read the sentences. Choose the proper form of the words whose or who’s to complete each sentence.

1. I have no idea whose crayons these are, but they are all broken!

2. Do you know who’s coming to the party next week?

3. Who’s going to help me bake this bread?

4. Whose paper is this here without a name?

5. Can you tell me who’s going to be working on the new kitchen with my dad?

6. Who’s next in line for the movie tickets?

7. My mother had had enough when she yelled, “Who’s making all that racket down there?”

8. I am not sure whose idea it was to give the baby a container of frosting, but it wasn’t a good idea!

9. Does dad know who’s trick or treating with us?

10. Mrs. Pappa found a dollar on the floor, and Sally knew whose it was.