

Name: _____

Why Did It Happen?

Directions: Read the two sentences. Combine the two sentences into one that shows both the cause and effect.

1. Cassie didn't hear her alarm clock.
She missed the bus to school.

2. George's big red balloon popped.
The balloon hit mom's scissors.

3. The baby bird was on the ground.
He had fallen out of the nest.

4. I fell off my bicycle.
I hit a rock in the road.

5. The puppy chewed my slippers.
I left them on the floor.

Name: _____

Why Did It Happen?

Answer Key

Directions: Read the two sentences. Combine the two sentences into one that shows both the cause and effect.

1. Cassie didn't hear her alarm clock.
She missed the bus to school.

Cassie missed the school bus
because she didn't hear her alarm clock.

2. George's big red balloon popped.
The balloon hit mom's scissors.

George's big red balloon popped because the balloon hit mom's scissors.

3. The baby bird was on the ground.
He had fallen out of the nest.

The baby bird was on the ground
because he fell out of the nest.

4. I fell off my bicycle.
I hit a rock in the road.

I fell off my bicycle because I hit a rock in the road.

5. The puppy chewed my slippers.
I left them on the floor.

The puppy chewed my slippers
because I left them on the floor.