

Name: _____

Why Did It Happen?

Directions: Read the two sentences. Combine the two sentences into one that shows both the cause and effect.

1. Robby threw the ball in the house.
The vase fell and broke.

2. Sandy had a stomach ache.
She ate 2 bowls of ice cream.

3. Rosco the dog ripped up the pillow on John's bed.
Rosco had been left alone.

4. The can of soda exploded.
Bobby had shaken the can.

5. The flowers grew quickly
We watered the flowers every day.

Name: _____

Why Did It Happen?

Answer Key

Directions: Read the two sentences. Combine the two sentences into one that shows both the cause and effect.

1. Robby threw the ball in the house.
The vase fell and broke.

The vase fell and broke because
Robby threw the ball in the house.

2. Sandy had a stomach ache.
She ate 2 bowls of ice cream.

Sandy had a stomach ache because
she ate 2 bowls of ice cream.

3. Rosco the dog ripped up the pillow on John's bed.
Rosco had been left alone.

Rosco the dog ripped up the pillow on John's bed because he was left alone.

4. The can of soda exploded.
Bobby had shaken the can.

The can of soda exploded because
Bobby had shaken the can.

5. The flowers grew quickly
We watered the flowers every day.

The flowers grew quickly because we watered them every day.